

Health and Wellness

Your health is important – complete the Personal Health Risk Assessment today!

Are your eating, sleeping or drinking habits putting you at risk? Do you know how your physical activities and lifestyle affect your health? To help answer these questions, Great-West Life has enhanced our easy to use online Personal Health Risk Assessment.

You can create your own personal health profile, build a detailed and customized action plan to support your health and wellness needs, and track your progress along the way. Completing an action plan can help you follow through with your healthy living choices. The Personal Health Risk Assessment can provide you with a detailed and accurate understanding of the health issues that may be putting you at risk, such as blood pressure and cholesterol levels. Educational content, health resources and tools are also available.

The Personal Health Risk Assessment is available on our Health & Wellness Site, at:
