Benefit Plan

HSAA Paramedical Professional, Technical and Office & Clerical Employees

The Health Benefit Trust of Alberta (HBTA) is a multi-employer, employee life and health trust; the purpose of which is to provide designated employee benefits, including sickness and accident benefits, to eligible employees of employers who participate in the HBTA. Each participating employer selects the employee benefit programs, many of which are collectively bargained, tailored to suit the needs of each of their employee groups.

A Board of Trustees called the Policy Council, whose membership is appointed by the participating employers, oversees the management and administration of the HBTA, which operates on a not-for-profit basis. Policy Council alone has responsibility, power, and authority to make decisions for the governance and administration of the HBTA, which may include delegation of certain plan administration functions to a third party. In exercising their power and authority, Policy Council is committed to being fiscally responsible and operating for the collective benefit of HBTA plan participants.

Plan administration for the HBTA has been delegated to the Employee Benefits and Retirement Programs Group of Health Shared Services as Plan Administrator. The Plan Administrator prepared this booklet to describe your benefit plan. The Plan Administrator also provides professional consulting and administrative services to the Policy Council and employers participating in the HBTA.

The information provided in this booklet summarizes the benefits available to you and does not create or establish any contractual rights or legally binding obligations. In the event of a discrepancy or error, the terms and conditions of HBTA policies, contracts, and legal plan documents will apply.

The HBTA Policy Council is the Group Policyholder for all benefit plan policies and contracts. Authorization for distribution of copies of HBTA benefit plan policies has been delegated solely to the HBTA Plan Administrator. Any inquiries related to copies of the contract or official plan documents, regardless of whether the inquiry results from legal or arbitration proceedings, must be directed through your Benefits Representative.

General Provisions

Eligibility

You are eligible to enroll in the benefit plan if you are a regular full time or part-time employee regularly scheduled to work at least 15 hours per week averaged over one complete cycle of the shift schedule. If you are a temporary employee regularly scheduled to work at least 15 hours per week on average for a minimum of 6 months, you are eligible for most benefits; however, temporary employees are not eligible for the Flexible Spending Account. You must permanently reside in Canada in order to be eligible for the benefit plan.

If you hold more than one regular position within the same employee group, your benefits eligibility, coverage and spending account credits will be based on your combined positions to a maximum of 1.0 FTE. If you gain a second regular position in the same employee group after the annual allocation, you will not be eligible for new credits mid-year.

If you hold regular benefits-eligible positions in different employee groups, the positions are treated independently of one another and will not be combined for benefits coverage. You will be enrolled only in one of the Supplementary Health and Dental plans for which you have eligibility; however, Spending Account credits, will be based on each regular position for the annual allocation. If you have a regular position in one group and gain a position in a second group after the allocation, you will be eligible for new credits based on the new regular position, if applicable.

If you occupy a casual position or a position regularly scheduled to work less than 15 hours per week on average, you are not eligible to join the plan. If you are a temporary employee whose term is less than 6 months you are not eligible to join the plan.

Eligible Dependents

Dependents eligible for coverage must permanently reside in Canada and are defined as follows:

Spouse

- A person who is legally married to the employee according to applicable provincial legislation; or
- A common law spouse who has cohabitated with the employee for a minimum of 12 consecutive months, having been represented as the employee's spouse, and who is not a blood relative.

An employee can insure only one spouse at a time. Unless otherwise formally requested by the employee, the person legally married to the insured employee shall be considered to be the spouse. A change from common law spouse to legal spouse is valid only when the legal spouse is cohabitating with the employee. An ex-spouse is not an eligible dependent.

Dependent Children

A child is insurable from live birth if they are unmarried and:

- a natural, adopted or step child of the employee or insured spouse, or
- a child for whom the employee or the insured spouse has been appointed legal guardian by a court of law if in the care and control of the insured employee. Proof of guardianship is required.

A child under age 21 must be financially dependent upon the employee and not working more than 30 hours per week, unless a full time student.

A child age 21 or over must be:

- a full time student under age 25; or
- incapacitated for a continuous period beginning
  - before age 21; or
  - while a full time student and before age 25.

A child is considered incapacitated if they are incapable of supporting themselves due to a physical or psychiatric disorder and is fully dependent upon the employee for maintenance and support.

Note: Incapacitation must be total and permanent and may require ongoing proof.

A child of the insured spouse does not qualify unless:

- he or she is a child of the employee; or
- the spouse is living with the employee and has custody of the child.

A child is considered a full time student if they are in registered attendance at an accredited post-secondary educational institution on a full time basis as defined by that institution, and ineligible for coverage under another employer sponsored benefit plan as an employee or a spouse.

A child being paid to attend an educational institution is not considered to be a full time student.

Benefit Year

The benefit year is January 1 to December 31.

Waiting Period and Effective Date of Coverage

Coverage for Life, AD&D, STD and LTD begins on the date you commence in a benefits eligible position, provided you are actively at work.

Supplementary Health, Dental and Flex Spending begins on the first day of the month following your commencement in a benefits eligible position, provided you are actively at work. If you commence in a benefits eligible position on the first calendar day of the month, your coverage will be effective immediately if you are actively at work.

Coverage for Optional Life plans takes effect once approval of your application is received from the insurance carrier, provided you are actively at work.

To be considered actively at work, you must:

1. be fully capable of performing your regular duties and hours within the regular work rotation; and
2. be either:
   a. actually working at the employer's place of business or a place where the employer's business requires you to work; or
   b. absent due to vacation, weekends, statutory holidays, or shift variances.

Canada Life has the right to determine if an employee has satisfied the actively at work requirement. If you are not actively at work on the date that insurance would normally become effective, the insurance will not become effective until you are actively at work.

There are specific rules for a return to work on a modified or gradual basis and for situations of permanent accommodation. Contact the HR Contact Centre for details.

Enrolment

When you are hired or become benefits eligible, you will be provided with a letter that directs you to Employee Self-Serve on e-People where you will select your benefits coverage.

You must enroll in the benefit plan within 31 days of your date of hire in an eligible position or date of benefits eligibility. If you do not enroll, your coverage will automatically default to the following:

- Supplementary Health (includes Out of Province/Country Emergency Health) and Dental – single coverage
- All flex credits default to a Health Spending Account
- Basic Life Insurance, Basic Accidental Death and Dismemberment Insurance
- Short Term Disability and Long Term Disability

Once you are enrolled the benefit package you select will remain in effect until the earliest of the following:

- You experience a qualifying change event
- You become ineligible for benefits.

Alberta Blue Cross ID Cards

Upon enrolment in Supplementary Health and Dental, you will receive an email from Alberta Blue Cross indicating that your ID card is available through the Alberta Blue Cross Members Site & App. Registration on the Alberta Blue Cross member services website is required to access your identification card, obtain information, and submit/view your claims online. Once registered, you may print your ID card from the Alberta Blue Cross Members Site or use the App to access your digital ID card, or upload a digital copy to your smartphone wallet. The card displays your group number, section number, ID number, selected coverage and covered dependents. If information on the card is incorrect, please contact the HR Contact Centre.

If your Alberta Blue Cross ID Card is lost or requires replacement, you may print a new card from the Alberta Blue Cross member services site

Changing Employee Group or Location

If you obtain a benefits eligible position in a different employee group without a break in service, your coverage in the first benefit plan will end and you will enroll in the new employee group plan. Your life and disability coverage in the new plan will be effective on the date you move into your new position, provided you are actively at work. Your Supplementary Health, Dental and Flexible Spending Account will terminate at the end of the month during which you change positions and coverage in the new plan will begin on the first day of the month following. Your Supplementary Health and Dental claims history will follow you; for example, if orthodontic claims are in progress at the time you transfer employee groups the previous claims will be brought forward into your new plan and be subject to the maximums.

You will receive a new Alberta Blue Cross ID card and will have to advise your pharmacist, dentist, and other service providers of the change.

If you transfer to a benefits eligible position in a different location without a break in service and remain in the same employee group, your coverage will continue and your ID card will remain the same.

Opting In and Opting Out of Coverage

Basic Life, Basic Accidental Death and Dismemberment (AD&D), Short Term Disability and Long Term Disability plans are mandatory. You are automatically enrolled and cannot opt out of these plans.

Supplementary Health and Dental Plans are also mandatory and you must be enrolled in these plans unless you qualify under the opting out provisions.

You may opt out of Supplementary Health and Dental coverage with proof of coverage through a spouse or other employer plan as long as proof of the other coverage is provided within 31 days of initial enrolment or of gaining the other coverage. When you opt out of Supplementary Health, you also opt out of Out of Province/Country Emergency Health coverage.

If you have opted out of the Supplementary Health and Dental plans, you can opt back into the plans only if you lose your spousal or other group coverage and provide proof within 31 days of the loss of coverage. You must experience a complete loss of coverage to opt in; a change or reduction of coverage is not considered a loss of coverage.

You cannot opt out of coverage if you have coverage through a personal/individual plan, an association plan, Indigenous Affairs and Northern Development, the Government Child Health Benefit, or if you are covered under a parent's plan. Certain exceptions apply if your spouse is with the Canadian Military service and is covered by military benefits.

Late Applicants

A late applicant is an eligible dependent who was not enrolled for Supplementary Health or Dental benefits within 31 days of the date of benefits eligibility. A late applicant is also an employee (and eligible dependent, when applicable) who was not enrolled within 31 days of the date he or she lost spousal or other employer coverage.

You are a late applicant if your application for coverage is received more than 31 days after you are eligible to enroll in benefits or your spousal or other employer coverage is lost. Late applicant rules will apply and, in most cases, you will be required to pay retroactive premiums.

If family premiums have not been paid and a request to add a newborn child is received within 24 months of the baby's date of birth, family coverage and premiums will start the first day of the month following the date the notice is received by Benefits Administration. If the request is received more than 24 months from the date of birth, family coverage and premiums will be effective for a retroactive period of 12 months.

Beneficiary Designation

Your beneficiary is the person (or persons) designated by you to receive life and AD&D insurance proceeds in the event of your death. You may designate more than one beneficiary for your life insurance; a specific percentage should be indicated for each person listed, or proceeds will be divided equally between named beneficiaries. If your designated beneficiary dies before you, that beneficiary's interest will end, the life insurance plan allows a provision to designate contingent beneficiaries to receive the benefit should your primary beneficiary predecease you during the time you are covered.

If there is no living beneficiary designated on the date of your death, the benefit is payable to your estate. You may also designate your estate as beneficiary but should be aware that this may delay payment of the claim as probation will most likely be required.

If you appoint a person under age 18 as your beneficiary, the appointment of a Trustee to receive the life insurance proceeds and to act on the child's behalf is strongly recommended.

A periodic review of your beneficiary designations is also recommended, particularly when you have a change in life circumstances such as marriage, divorce, the birth of a child, or the death of a spouse. If you do not update your beneficiary designation, your life insurance benefit could be paid to someone you no longer intended to receive it.

The Beneficiary Designation form assigns beneficiaries for all Basic and Optional Life Insurance and all Accidental Death and Dismemberment Insurance plans. You may change your beneficiary designation at any time by completing a new Beneficiary Designation form available by contacting the HR Contact Centre. Instructions are provided on the form.

Your Personal Information

It is very important to ensure that the most current personal information such as your home address and contact information, marital status, dependents, and emergency contacts are up to date on e-People. If your information is outdated or incorrect, you may miss out on important announcements. Your payroll and benefits may be affected, and T4 or pension statement may be mailed to the wrong address. Check your personal information regularly to ensure that it is correct.

As union and non-union benefit plans are administered on separate systems, a transfer from one of these employee groups to another will require review and re-entry of certain personal information on the system to which you transfer.

Flexible Spending Account

The Flexible Spending Account provides a predetermined number of flex credits each year to allocate among a non-taxable Health Spending Account, a taxable Personal Spending Account, a Group Savings Plan (RRSP) which is taxable but provides an offset for tax deduction and/or a Tax Free Savings Account (TFSA) which is taxable but interest earned on the account is not. One flex credit is equivalent to one Canadian dollar. Your allocation period occurs annually at a predetermined period, normally in November. Once your final selection is submitted, your decision is irrevocable for that year.

Provided you are eligible, you will be provided with new credits which are deposited into your Flexible Spending Account each January. Please see the “Flexible Spending Account” section of this booklet for information regarding your options, coverage, and tax information.

Eligibility for the Flexible Spending Account

You are eligible for this benefit provided you are:

- a regular employee in a benefits eligible position;
- a regular benefits eligible employee in a temporary assignment;
- a regular benefits eligible employee on an approved unpaid leave of absence, or
- in receipt of disability benefits and are within 30 months of your original date of disability.*

You are not eligible for this benefit if you:

- are a casual or a temporary employee;
- do not occupy a benefits eligible position; or
- are past 30 months from your original date of disability.*

*Coverage remains in effect for up to 30 months from your original date of disability if you are in receipt of disability benefits and remain an employee.

If you opt out of Supplementary Health and Dental coverage, you are still eligible for the Flexible Spending Account.

The rule for eligible dependents for the Health Spending or Family Care portion of this benefit program is expanded to the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) definition of dependents; in certain instances this can include dependent parents. If you normally claim the expense on a tax return, the individual would be covered through the Health Spending Account. If you are unsure of the status of your eligible dependents, contact CRA.

How Credits are Determined

You are provided with $1,250 in flex credits plus $1,500 that is prorated according to your full time equivalency (FTE) on November 1st of the year preceding the credit deposit. Credit allotments do not change during the year if you have an FTE or salary change. If you become eligible for this plan mid-year, your credits are prorated relative to the number of full months left in the year.

Enrolment

You are not required to enroll in the Flexible Spending Account. If you are eligible for flex credits you will be advised of the amount of your credits for the next year and you will be asked to allocate them.

Multiple Regular Positions

If you are working in more than one regular part-time position in the same employee group on November 1st, the positions will be added together to a maximum of 1.0 FTE to determine your Flexible Spending Account credits for the next year.

Leave of Absence

If you commence an approved Leave of Absence you continue to have access to your Flexible Spending Account credits even if you cancel your Supplementary Health and/or Dental coverage during your leave. You will receive a new Alberta Blue Cross card with a new section number.

If you are in receipt of disability benefits you continue to have access to the Flexible Spending Account during the disability to a maximum of 30 months from your original date of disability.

If you are on a Leave of Absence during your flex credit annual allocation period, you will be required to allocate your credits. If you do not, default provisions apply.

The Annual Allocation Process

The annual allocation event takes place late in the year, normally in November. Your employer will notify you in advance of the allocation period. On the opening day of the allocation period you will receive a direct email to your work email account advising that the allocation is open. You will receive reminders to allocate midway and near the end of the allocation period if you have not submitted your allocation. It is advisable to begin the process early to avoid complications that may arise if you require assistance when you are nearing the deadline.

The allocation of your flex credits for the upcoming year is completed on Employee Self-Serve. If you plan to be away, your allocation can be submitted remotely since the system can be accessed electronically from anywhere in the world.

Note: There are no provisions for you to allocate outside of the allocation period if you are away when the allocation period occurs. You can access the system from anywhere in the world and are expected to allocate remotely.

If You Do Not Allocate

If you fail to allocate, all new credits will default to the Health Spending Account. This cannot be changed after the allocation period has ended.

Special Conditions for Allocating to the Group Savings Plan

If you choose to allocate your credits to the group RRSP and/or TFSA, you are required to open an account within 60 days of the allocation period if you do not already have an open account. If you do not do so, your credits will be deposited to a Health Spending Account. For more information, please see the Flexible Spending Account section of this booklet.

Credit Carry Forward

CRA guidelines allow unused credits to be carried forward for one benefit year. If not used by the end of the carry forward year, they are forfeited. Claims are processed on a “first in, first out” basis to avoid the loss of credits.

Credits are carried forward in the same account. They cannot be transferred to another account (e.g. $100 left in your Personal Spending Account will carry forward to the next year in your Personal Spending Account and cannot be transferred to your Health Spending Account, group RRSP or group TFSA).

Expenses do not carry forward and must be claimed within each benefit year.

Termination of Employee Benefits

When you terminate employment, change employee groups, or move to an ineligible status, your participation in the plan ceases. Your flex credits remain available until the end of the month in which the termination occurs.

Alberta Blue Cross must receive any claims incurred during the eligible period of employment within 2 months of the date you are no longer eligible or your termination date; for the claims to be processed.

If your Flexible Spending Account is terminated and you become eligible again within the same calendar year, the forfeited credits in your account will be reinstated.

Life Insurance Conversion Option

If your group life insurance ends you have a 60 day period in which to convert your coverage and/or your spouse's coverage (if applicable) to an individual policy at prices determined by the insurer. You do not have to supply medical evidence of insurability; however, lower rates may be available if you wish to be insured and can provide satisfactory evidence of good health.

Note: The conversion privilege is not available if the insurance terminates due to age limitations.

There is a $200,000 combined Basic, Additional Basic and Optional Employee Life Insurance limit on the amount of insurance you can convert. Premium rates will be based on factors such age, gender and the type of insurance policy you select.

Premium Waiver

If you are in receipt of STD or LTD benefits your benefit plan coverage continues under a General Waiver of Premium without payment of premium for up to 30 months from your original date of disability, provided you remain an employee.

Under a Life Waiver of Premium, life insurance continues to be in effect without payment of premium if you are in receipt of LTD benefits after 30 months of disability. The Life Waiver applies as long as you receive LTD benefits, which can continue until age 65.

Changes to your Coverage

There are times you may wish to make a change to your benefits coverage, particularly when there are changes to your employment and/or personal status. Following initial enrolment, certain conditions or restrictions may apply if you wish to enroll in an optional plan or change your coverage under Supplementary Health or Dental.

It is important to enter any personal status changes such as marriage, divorce, addition or deletion of a dependent, change of address, etc. into Employee Self Serve when they occur and to apply for benefits changes as soon as possible.

There are certain situations that do allow for single to family or family to single status changes to Supplementary Health and Dental coverage. These include:

- Addition of a child due to birth, formal adoption or legal guardianship
- Deletion of a child due to the child reaching the maximum age, marriage, employment or death
- Addition of a spouse due to marriage or common law for 12 consecutive months
- Deletion of a spouse due to divorce, common law separation or death
- Employee loss of spousal or other employer plan coverage (you must provide proof of loss of coverage)

Other changes such as an increase to your amount of life insurance coverage require Evidence of Insurability and coverage will be subject to approval by the insurer. If you are off work due to a Leave of Absence, including disability, you cannot apply for increases to life insurance until you have returned to work and are benefits eligible.

Note: Your application for benefits changes is required within 31 days of the event prompting the change.

Request the removal of ineligible dependents as soon as possible. Your dependent child will be automatically removed from coverage at the end of the month in which the dependent reaches the maximum age.

If you receive a mid-year salary change your level of Basic Life, Basic AD&D, Additional Basic Life (if applicable) and Additional Basic AD&D (if applicable), STD and LTD will align with the new salary and a corresponding change to your premium deductions. If you are on a Leave of Absence, including disability, when a mid-year salary change occurs, premiums will not be adjusted until you have returned to work and are benefits eligible. A salary or FTE change will not be reflected in your flex credit amount until the next allocation period.

Information regarding changes related to transfers among positions, FTE status, employee groups or location is provided in the General Provisions section of this booklet – Enrolment and Coverage. One of the most important things to be aware of regarding any type of transfer is that your Supplementary Health and Dental claims history will follow you into your new plan and will be factored into your coverage when you make subsequent claims.

How Changes Are Made

To make changes to your personal information, including name, address, contact information and/or marital status log in to Employee Self-Serve – Employee Home and choose “Personal Information Home”.

If you have experienced one of the events listed above, log in to Employee Self-Serve – Employee Home within 31 days of the event and choose “Benefits Home”. You may update some of your coverage information and add or remove dependents to or from your coverage. To guide you through the process, e-People Employee Resources are available here or here.

Please see the section “Opting in and Opting Out of Coverage” earlier in this section if you have gained or experienced a loss of spousal or other employer coverage.

For any coverage changes it is recommended that you contact the HR Contact Centre at 1-877-511-4455. A representative can help you initiate your changes.

Certain restrictions or conditions apply to changes made more than 31 days after an allowed event or for any other requests to increase coverage. Late applicant information can be found earlier in this section.

Any changes to Supplementary Health or Dental coverage will prompt Alberta Blue Cross to issue a new ID card to you. It is important to notify your pharmacist, dentist and any other health provider who may direct bill when you are issued a new card.

When Supplementary Health and Dental Coverage Changes Are Effective

Newborns will be added to your coverage on the date of birth provided you have applied for coverage within 31 days of the date of birth. If you are moving from single to family status, family premiums will be deducted.

The addition or removal of a legal or common law spouse or other dependent to or from coverage will be effective on the first day of the month following the date the change was requested provided you have applied for the change within 31 days of the date the change event occurred. Remove your spouse or dependent (s) as soon as possible, if applicable.

Any changes to coverage that are requested more than 31 days after the event prompting the change are subject to Late Applicant rules which were described earlier in this booklet.

Premium Costs and Deductions

Employer and employee premium rates are posted here. Cost shares are noted earlier in this section in the Benefits Summary.

The claims experience of all benefit plans is reviewed annually. Any changes to premium rates resulting from the review are communicated to plan members in advance and are normally implemented at the beginning of a new benefit year.

The employee-paid portion of Supplementary Health and Dental premiums may be claimed from your Health Spending Account if you have sufficient credits or on your income tax return. Information on how to claim is available from the HR Contact Centre or from the Canada Revenue Agency depending on which option you choose.

Coverage While on Disability – General Overview

If you are receiving Short Term Disability, your benefits coverage continues under a General Waiver of Premium and is based on your pre-disability earnings. You do not pay premiums.

If you are receiving Long Term Disability and are within 30 months of your original date of disability, your benefits coverage continues based on your pre-disability earnings under General Waiver of Premium. You do not pay premiums.

Coordination of Benefits

Coordination of Benefits is a process whereby individuals, couples or families can coordinate two or more benefit plans to receive the maximum eligible coverage. The ability to coordinate benefits is standard practice among benefits carriers in Canada.

The following is an example of how benefits are coordinated with a spouse's plan.

- Expense incurred by you: submit the claim first under your group plan. Any unpaid portion may then be submitted under your spouse's plan.
- Expense incurred by your spouse: submit the claim first under your spouse's plan. Any unpaid portion of the expense may then be submitted under your group plan.
- Expense incurred for a dependent child: submit the claim first to the plan of the parent whose birth month occurs first in the calendar year. If both birthdays are in the same month, submit the claim first to the plan of the parent whose day of birth is earlier. If both parental birth dates are on the same month and day (regardless of year), submit the claim first to the plan of the parent whose first letter of their first name is earlier in the alphabet. Any unpaid balance can then be submitted to the other parent's plan.

Benefits may be coordinated at your health care professional's office by providing both coverage numbers. To ensure coordination of benefits ensure you provide information for all plans under which you have coverage.

To find out how to coordinate benefits with another plan contact Alberta Blue Cross directly or refer to their brochure "Understanding Coordination of Benefits".

Flexible Spending Account

The Flexible Spending Account (FSA) is designed to enhance your Supplementary Health and Dental coverage, encourage your fitness, wellness and professional development, and to assist with family care needs and retirement planning. No employee contribution is required; this program is fully employer funded. The Introduction and Benefit Plan Summary and General Provisions sections of this booklet provide further information about this plan.

The FSA is an individual employee account that provides benefit dollars (credits). You can direct these credits to a non-taxable Health Spending Account, a taxable Personal Spending Account, a Registered Retirement Savings Account (RRSP) and/or Tax Free Savings Account (TFSA). Once a year you make an irrevocable allocation of your credits among these options.

Health Spending – These claims must meet Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) guidelines as an eligible tax-deductible expense.

Personal Spending – All expenses reimbursed under these categories are subject to income tax, CPP and EI and your employer will process the necessary deductions through payroll. Original receipts can be retained, as some expenses may be eligible for personal tax relief.

Credits

If you are eligible for this benefit, credits are deposited into your FSA on the first day of January every year. Your full credit amount is $1,250 plus $1,500 that is prorated according to your full time equivalency (FTE) as it stands on November 1st of the preceding year. Your credit amount will not change throughout the year if you undergo an FTE or salary change. If you become eligible for this plan mid-year, your credits are prorated relative to the amount of full months that remain in the year.

These credits can be allocated to one or more of the following accounts:

1. Health Spending Account
2. Personal Spending Account
3. Group RRSP
4. Group TFSA

Note: Each year, (normally in November) you are required to allocate your flex credits for the following year. If you have not submitted your allocation instructions, and if they have not been received and confirmed within the timeframe provided, 100% of your credits will default to your Health Spending Account.

A copy of these guidelines is available on the CRA Website.

Personal Spending Account (taxable)

Short Term Disability

The Short Term Disability (STD) plan provides disability income if you are absent from work due to non-occupational illness or injury once you have exhausted your paid sick leave benefit. The Introduction and Benefit Plan Summary and General Provisions sections of this booklet provide further information about this plan.

Short Term Benefits

If you become ill or injured and are unable to perform the essential duties of your own job, you may be eligible for STD benefits or modified work. If your claim is approved, your STD benefits will begin after your sick leave benefits end or on the 8th day of your disability , whichever is later. If, however, your disability is due to accidental injury, or if you are hospitalized, or have day surgery, your STD benefits will begin immediately after your sick leave benefit is ended, even if you have not yet been disabled for 8 days.

STD benefits will be paid to you weekly and will continue until one of the following occurs:

- You become medically fit to return to work
- You are disabled for a total of 24 weeks
- You do not submit medical information as required
- You do not participate in a rehabilitation program recommended for you

Note: If you are disabled and receiving STD benefits and your benefit plan coverage ends, the STD claim which is already in progress can continue as though coverage had not ended.

Direct Offsets

Your STD benefits will be directly reduced by any disability benefits you receive from:

- Canada Pension Plan/Quebec Pension Plan or a similar plan in another country which has a reciprocal agreement with Canada or Quebec, except for increases that take effect after the benefit period starts. This does not include retirement benefits that were payable for each of the 12 months before a disability started. Benefits payable to another family member are not included.
- Benefits under any Workers' Compensation Act or similar law except for permanent partial disability awards that were payable for each of the 12 months before a disability started and benefits related to employment with another employer.
- Loss of income benefits under an automobile insurance plan, to the extent permitted by law.
- Employment income related to any employment which was in place less than 12 months before a disability period.
- Employer sponsored sick leave benefits.
- 50% of earnings received from an approved rehabilitation plan.

All Source Maximum

Your STD benefit is subject to further reduction so that your total weekly income from all sources (excluding rehabilitative earnings) is not more than 80% of your gross pre-disability weekly earnings.

Recurrent Disability

If you recover and return to work after receiving STD benefits, but you become disabled again within 14 calendar days due to the same disease or injury, your STD benefits will resume immediately and your second period of disability will be counted as a continuation of the earlier claim.

Rehabilitation

If you are absent from work due to illness or injury, you may be able to participate in a rehabilitation program or return to work with modified duties. A rehabilitation program/modified return to work plan is designed to help you return to gainful employment and therefore a more productive lifestyle. In consultation with the physician, the rehabilitation case manager and/or Ability Advisor will consider how long you will be off work and what activities will best help you return to work.

In order for the rehabilitation program not to disrupt your receipt of disability benefits, the program must be recommended or approved by Your employer, the insurer and your attending physician. Your STD benefit will be reduced by 50% for each dollar that you earn while participating in the rehabilitative program. Your STD benefit will be further reduced so that your rehabilitation earnings and STD benefits together do not add up to more than your regular pre-disability earnings.

Exclusions and Limitations

STD benefits are not paid for:

- disability arising from war, insurrection or voluntary participation in a riot;
- any period of incarceration, confinement or imprisonment by authority of law;
- a condition for which you are not under the regular care of a physician

In addition, no benefits are payable for:

- any period preceding the date you are first treated by a legally licensed doctor of medicine, or in which he does not participate or cooperate in a reasonable and customary treatment program
- any period after you fail to participate or cooperate in modified job duties offered by the employer.
- any period after you fail to participate or cooperate in a rehabilitation plan and/or medical coordination program that has been recommended or approved by the plan administrator.
- the scheduled duration of a leave of absence or layoff. This exclusion does not apply to any portion of a period of maternity leave during which you are disabled as a result of pregnancy. If a child is born before a period of maternity leave is schedule to start, the leave is considered to start on the date of birth.
- the following periods if disability is related to maternity:
  - a period for which you are entitled to receive Employment Insurance maternity benefits; and
  - a period for which you are normally entitled to receive benefits under an Employment Insurance SUB plan.
- any period of employment, except in an approved rehabilitation plan or program.
- any period of vacation time taken while participating or cooperating in a rehabilitation plan that has been recommended or approved by the plan administrator unless the vacation time has been approved by the plan administrator.
- any period in which the person is outside Canada. This exclusion does not apply during the first 30 days of an absence, or if the plan administrator pre-authorized the absence prior to your departure.
- disability resulting from or associated with the treatment performed for cosmetic purposes only. If functional complications result from cosmetic treatment, this limitation will not apply.

Long Term Disability

The Long Term Disability (LTD) plan provides disability income if you are absent from work due to non-occupational illness or injury. The Introduction and Benefit Plan Summary and General Provisions sections of this booklet provide further information about this plan.

Long Term Disability

If you become ill or injured and are unable to perform the essential duties of your own job for a period lasting longer than 24 weeks, you may be eligible for LTD benefits starting on your 25th week of disability or after you have exhausted any paid sick leave benefits, if later. If you are eligible for LTD benefits you may also be eligible for modified work, depending on the situation.

If a disability is not continuous, the days you are disabled will be accumulated to satisfy the elimination period as long as no interruption is longer than 31 days and the disabilities arise from the same disease or injury.

If your claim is approved, your LTD payments will be paid on a monthly basis until one of the following events occurs:

- You become medically fit to return to work
- You reach age 65 or elect to receive early retirement benefits, if earlier
- You do not submit medical information as required
- You do not participate in a rehabilitation program recommended for you

After the initial assessment period, you are considered disabled if disease or injury prevents you from performing the regular duties of any occupation for which you have at least the minimum qualifications. The availability of work will not be considered in assessing disability.

Note: If you are disabled and receiving LTD benefits and your benefit plan coverage ends, the LTD claim which is already in progress can continue as though coverage had not ended.

Direct Offsets

Your LTD benefits will be directly reduced by any disability benefits for which you may be eligible at the same time from:

- Canada Pension Plan/Quebec Pension Plan or a similar plan in another country which has a reciprocal agreement with Canada or Quebec. This does not include retirement benefits that were payable for each of the 12 months before a disability period.
- Benefits under any Workers' Compensation Act or similar law except for:
  - Permanent partial disability awards that were payable for each of the 12 months before a disability period; and
  - Benefits related to employment with another employer
  - Employer sponsored sick leave benefits
- 50% of earnings received from an approved rehabilitation program

If your income from all sources exceeds 100% of your monthly earnings as of the commencement of total disability, your monthly benefit will be reduced by the excess.

All Source Maximum

If you have income from other sources, your LTD benefit will be subject to further reduction so that your total monthly income from all sources (excluding rehabilitative earnings) is not more than 80% of your regular monthly earnings before you become disabled

Under this provision, your income benefit is reduced if the total of the following income and the income benefit exceeds the all source maximum shown in the Table of Benefits. The reduction is the amount by which this total exceeds the all source maximum.

- Benefits to which another member of your family is entitled on the basis of your disability under:
  - the Canada Pension Plan;
  - the Quebec Pension Plan; or
  - a similar plan in another country which has a reciprocal agreement with Canada or Quebec.
  - benefits payable directly to the family member are not included
- Loss of income benefits available through legislation to which you or another member of your family are entitled on the basis of your disability, except for Employment Insurance benefits.
- The wage loss portion of any criminal injury award, except for awards that included the long term disability income benefits available under this plan in the calculation of the award.
- Loss of income benefits under an automobile insurance plan, to the extent permitted by law.
- Disability benefits under a plan of insurance available through an association, except for benefits that were payable for each of the 12 months before a disability period.
- Employment income, disability benefits or retirement benefits related to any employment, except for:
  - disability benefits that are prepayments of life insurance;
  - benefits from retirement plans to which an employer has not contributed; or
  - any amount that is related to employment other than with the employer and that was payable for each of the 12 months before a disability period. All employment income, disability benefits and retirement benefits resulting from the same employment are considered together in satisfying the 12 month condition as long as there is no interruption from one to the other. Elimination periods for disability benefits do not count as interruptions.
  - income from an approved rehabilitation plan. This income is considered under the offset and rehabilitation incentive provisions.
- Termination pay, severance benefits, vacation pay which was earned after disability, and any similar termination of employment benefits, including any salary paid in lieu of notice, are considered employment income under this provision.

Recurrent Disability

After the elimination period, a disability is considered a recurrence if it arises from the same disease or injury and starts:

- within 6 months after the previous disability benefit period; or
- within 6 months after the end of an approved rehabilitation plan.

Rehabilitation

If you are absent from work due to illness or injury, you may be able to participate in a rehabilitation program or return to work with modified duties. A rehabilitation program/modified return to work plan is designed to help you return to gainful employment and therefore a more independent lifestyle. In consultation with the physician, the rehabilitation case manager and/or ability advisor will consider how long you will be off work and what activities will best help you return to work.

In order for the rehabilitation program not to disrupt your receipt of disability benefits, the program must be recommended or approved by your employer, the insurer and your attending physician. Your LTD benefit might be further reduced so that the combination of your rehabilitation earnings and LTD benefits do not add up to more than your regular earnings before you become disabled

LTD benefits are not paid if your disability is a result of:

- disability arising from war, insurrection or voluntary participation in a riot
- any period of incarceration, confinement, or imprisonment by authority of law

LTD benefits will not be paid during:

- any period in which you fail to participate or cooperate in a reasonable and customary treatment program. If substance abuse contributes to your disability, your treatment program must include participation in a recognized substance withdrawal program.

- any period after you fail to cooperate in applying for or appealing other disability benefits to which you are entitled, where considered appropriate by the insurer.
- any period after you fail to participate or cooperate in modified job duties offered by your employer.
- any period after you fail to participate or cooperate in a rehabilitation plan or medical coordination program recommended or approved by the insurer.
- any period after you fail to participate or cooperate in a rehabilitation plan, medical coordination programs and/or vocation assessment recommended and approved by the insurer.
- the scheduled duration of a leave of absence. This exclusion does not apply to any portion of a period of maternity leave during which you are disabled as a result of pregnancy.
- the following periods if disability is related to maternity:
    - A period for which you are entitled to receive Employment Insurance maternity benefits; or
    - A period for which you are entitled to receive benefits under an Employment Insurance SUB plan.
- any period of vacation time taken while participating or cooperating in a rehabilitation plan that has been recommended or approved by the Insurer, unless the vacation time has been approved by the insurer.
- disability due to or associated with treatment performed for cosmetic treatment only. If complications result from cosmetic treatment, this limitation will not apply
- any period during which you are receiving income under a deferred compensation
- any period of employment for wage or profit unless you have been in receipt of this income for at least the past 12 months
